

remuneration of national service workers involved in the road-building programme, and to encourage wider reform of the national service system. Sustainable reform of the national service system needs to happen in tandem with an improved economic situation and job creation that the international community can support.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of the letters 'H' and 'B' in a cursive style.

Harriett Baldwin MP